

TEACHER BILL OF RIGHTS

Respecting the authority of teachers is essential to creating an environment conducive to learning, effective instruction in the classroom, and proper administration of city, parish, and other local public schools. To maintain and protect that authority, it is important that teachers, administrators, parents and students are fully informed of the various rights conferred upon teachers which are:

-  A teacher has the right to teach free from the fear of frivolous lawsuits, including the right to qualified immunity and to a legal defense, and to indemnification by the employing school board, pursuant to R.S. 17:416.1(C), 416.4, 416.5 and 416.11, for actions taken in the performance of duties of the teacher's employment.
-  A teacher has the right to appropriately discipline students in accordance with R.S. 17:223 and 416 through 416.16 and any city, parish, or other local public school board regulation.
-  A teacher has the right to move any persistently disruptive student from their classroom when the student's behavior prevents the orderly instruction of other students or when the student displays impudent or defiant behavior and to the place the student in the custody of the principal or his designee pursuant to R.S. 17:416 (A)(1) (c).
-  A teacher has the right to have his or her professional judgement and discretion respected by school and district administrations in any disciplinary action taken by the teacher in accordance with school and district policy and with R.S. 17:416 (A)(1)(c).
-  A teacher has the right to teach in a safe, secure, and orderly environment that is conducive to learning and free from recognized dangers or hazards that are causing or likely to cause serious injury in accordance with R.S. 17:416 (A)(1)(c).
-  A teacher has the right to be treated with civility and respect as provided in R.S. 17:416.12.
-  A teacher has the right to communicate with and to request the participation of parents in appropriate student disciplinary decisions pursuant to R.S. 17:235.1 416 (A).
-  A teacher has the right to be free from excessively burdensome disciplinary paperwork.
-  A beginning teacher has the right to receive leadership and support in accordance with R.S. 17:3881, including the assignment of a qualified, experienced mentor who commits to helping him or her become a competent, confident professional in the classroom and offers support and assistance as needed to meet performance standards and professional expectations.

* No city, parish or other local public school board shall establish policies that prevent teacher from exercising the rights provided herein. The provisions of the Teacher Bill of Rights shall not be construed to supersede any other state law, BESE Policy, or city, parish or other local public school board policy enacted or adopted relative to the discipline of students.
